Key Takeaways

The price of fireproof cable trays in Qatar varies based on material, size, finish, and customization, and suppliers like Electra, Altura Industries, and Qatar Technical provide tailored quotes. Supplier Options and Customization

- Electra Qatar offers a wide range of cable trays and accessories, including heavy-duty trays with or without covers. Their products are available in pre-galvanized, hot-dip galvanized, and epoxy-coated finishes, suitable for fire-resistant applications. Electra allows customization of tray dimensions, bends, reducers, and couplers to meet specific project requirements, ensuring proper cable support and protection .
- Altura Industries manufactures GRP/FRP and steel cable trays designed for harsh environments, including fire-prone areas. They provide wire mesh, ladder, and trunking systems compliant with BS EN 61537:2007 standards. Altura emphasizes smooth cable pulling and durability, offering competitive pricing for MEP contractors and industrial projects .

- Qatar Technical supplies solid and perforated cable trays with hot-dip galvanization available on request. Their systems include cable trays, ladders, and trunking, adaptable for fireproof installations. They provide multiple width and height combinations, allowing customization for airflow, heat dissipation, and load requirements .

- Adastra and ServeGas also provide metallic and mesh cable tray systems suitable for industrial, commercial, and residential applications. They offer custom designs, covers, and accessories to ensure fire safety and efficient cable management .

Factors Affecting Price

- Material: Steel, GRP/FRP, or galvanized finishes influence cost. Fireproof or heavy-duty materials are typically higher priced.

- Tray Type: Ladder, perforated, solid, or wire mesh designs have different manufacturing costs.

- Dimensions and Load Capacity: Larger trays or those supporting heavier cables increase price.

- Customization: Special bends, reducers, couplers, and covers add to the cost.

- Quantity and Delivery: Bulk orders or project-specific delivery schedules can affect pricing.

How to Obtain a Custom Quote

Since prices vary widely based on specifications, the best approach is to contact suppliers directly with your project requirements:

- Electra Qatar: <https://>

- Altura Industries: sales@alturaindustries.com, +974 4490 1003

- Qatar Technical: <https://qatartechnical.com/products/steel-fabrication-division/cable-support-systems/> Provide details such as tray type, dimensions, load requirements, fireproof rating, and quantity to receive an accurate, project-specific price.

Recommendation

For fireproof cable trays in Qatar, it is advisable to request multiple quotes from these suppliers to compare pricing, material quality, and delivery options. Customization ensures compliance with fire safety standards and project-specific installation needs.
